To find what you're looking for

The range of truck bodies available today can be confusing for many. Thanks to the structure of our website, you can quickly and easily access content tailored to you.

Its Responsive Design will adapt to your mobile support to enhance your experience.

Whether you want to shop for your dry or refrigerated truck body, choose your accessories, peruse through the photo gallery, view one of the many videos available, look through our Careers section and its job offers, or browse for support, resources or additional information, opt for the TRANSIT website.

Appreciate the sleek design

To maximize your experience, we have created a friendly and uncluttered website designed to help you find the solutions that are tailored to you. Its content is constantly updated and displayed clearly to help you find your way through the many solutions available.

Maximize your search

If you do not know where to find what you are looking for, our site search function (Q) is designed to help you find what you need quickly, right at your fingertips.

Enjoy direct access

Our products carousel, like our header tabs, allows you to browse the full range that we offer and easily obtain additional information about the various products.

Visit our Truck Bodies Gallery

Visualize the truck body that meets your specific needs, on the desired truck chassis brand. Access the gallery in one of three ways, by clicking on:

1. the Truck Bodies Gallery button available in the header;
2. the logo of the truck brand chosen on the home page;
3. the Truck Bodies Gallery button located in the red banner;
4. the View Gallery button available on the pages of the bodies offered.
