BULLETIN

Vol. 20 No. 08

Representatives of your success

We are available

The current situation has changed our lifestyles, but our team has adapted, and we are here to assist you with all your requests. Supporting and maximizing the achievement of your objectives remains a priority for us. We are committed to doing so by quickly providing you with quality truck bodies tailored to your needs.

We are at the forefront

Although social distancing limits face-to-face meetings, we are still accessible via telephone or video meetings. All these technologies are now part of our daily life and our team is committed to making your life as easy as it is for us.

We are your partners

You know your business and its needs. We know bodies, trucks and the transport industry. Together, we have the winning combination, the most advantageous solution, the path to tailor-made success. Supported by our team, you get the best tools to maximize your potential.

We are human

Customer service has always been at the heart of our concerns, because we know the value of each individual and understand the power we have as a team when our efforts are focused in the same direction.

Our internal and external representatives are available from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m., five days a week, across Canada and New England.

You can reach them via the main number (1-877-382-0104, followed by 1) or by general email (sales@transit.ca). As you can also contact them on their cellphones or personal emails.
