COOL IT FOR LESS

Arctik's design provides reliable insulation and superior durability, resulting in lower maintenance costs and shorter repair downtime.

COOL IT FOR LESS

Arctik truck bodies not only provide insulation material you can count on, they can also reduce your maintenance and repair costs. Its urethane-insulated panels are protected with a thermal barrier and a sprayed fiberglass finish to ensure a uniform temperature for your cargo. Their innovative construction design features prevent body damage, reduce breakdowns and electrical system failures and can lower your repair costs and shorten repair downtime. Our design flexibility allows you to customize your truck body in a multitude of ways; whatever your idea we can build it. Arctik's rivet-free side panels make application of decals, logos and lettering quick and inexpensive, and repairs can be done easily from the outside without disassembly. With our incredibly quick turnaround, you can get the refrigerated truck body you've trusted and relied on for years, faster than any other manufacturer in the market.

WHY CHOOSE AN ARCTIK TRUCK BODY?

REDUCE RISK WITH COMPLETE INSULATION

You don't lose precious cargo. Arctik's urethane-insulated interior is protected with thermal barriers and a unique coating to ensure a uniform temperature for your cargo.
